

Counseling

IoBM has appointed, Ms. Shehla Dutta as a Counselor who is available to all students and can be accessed in multiple ways:

1. Students and/or parents can meet with the Counselor by either walk-in or by appointment to discuss any personal, social, emotional and behavioral issues that the student is experiencing.
2. Teachers may refer students to the Counselor when they identify that student's learning is being impacted by academic, personal, social, emotional or behavioral issues.
3. Counselor may initiate meetings with students based on feedback received from other students, parents, teachers, administration and academic departments during particular times of academic year (i.e., grading periods)
